

Carol Ann and Jim Anderson are the Communion Committee members scheduled to prepare communion today.

The altar cloth on the baptistry today was a gift from our sister church, La Iglesia Bautista del Camino in Guanajay, Cuba. As a part of our covenant with this congregation, we remember them when celebrating the sacrament of communion.

 When available, an American Sign Language interpreter is at the base of the baptistry. Pews in front of the baptistry are reserved for our Deaf and hard-of-hearing community.

 This Sanctuary is equipped with Hearing Loop. If you have a hearing aid equipped with a T-coil and switch to it, you will hear audio directly from our sound system.

The call to worship is adapted from Call to Worship: Liturgy, Music, Preaching, and the Arts, Volume 57.1, ©2023 Office of Theology and Worship Presbyterian Church (USA). The litany of remembrance is adapted from Be Thou Present: Prayers, Litanies, and Hymns for Christian Worship by Peggy A. Haymes, ©1994 Smyth & Helwys Publishing, Inc. Music selections today include: "In Paradisum" from Fauré's Requiem, edited by John Rutter, ©1984 Hinshaw Music, Inc.

Words of Belonging

Greeting Camille Loomis Rehnborg

Music for Centering

We are invited to use this time to center ourselves and prepare our hearts for worship.

Call to Worship Camille Loomis Rehnborg

Enter God's presence, you who yearn for the day when death is no more.

From age to age, God is with us.

Enter God's presence, you who are filled with hope and you who find it hard to hope.

From age to age, God is with us.

We remember the ancestors of our faith and of our own families and communities.

From age to age, God is with us.

God of generations, we pray that the roots of our ancestors' love and wisdom will continue to nurture us as we grow,

That the branches of this community might provide shade for generations to come. Amen.

Welcome of Worshipers

Words of Remembrance

Litany of Remembrance Kyle Matthews

We gather this day to remember our family and friends who have died in this past year.

We give you thanks, O God, for those whom we have loved.

We give you thanks for the laughter and the love, the insight and the strength that they gave to us.

We thank you, O Lord, for bringing into being these unique people and for bringing them into our lives.

Now their death has left an empty place within us,

So we pray for ourselves, for the days when that empty place hurts like a raw wound and for the days when it returns as a gentle ache in the midst of the everyday living of our lives.

We hold onto the memory of those who have died, but we also pray for the grace to let go of any hurts unforgiven, any conflict unresolved and words from the heart left unsaid.

O Lord, you have promised your presence through the valley of the shadow of death.

We pray in confident trust that those who have passed through that valley are now in your gentle arms, and for we who remain on this side of the valley, we pray for strength in our grieving and joy in our remembering.

For these, our family and friends, we give you thanks: Al Bell, Mary Wylie, Joe Zaccheo, Barbara Alexander, Lee Counts, Ed Nix, Wayne Weaver, Ryan Clairmont, Jim Tomblin, Margaret Faile, Dick Locke, Dorothea Thomasson, Peggy Good, Verna Ballinger, Sharon Taylor, Jolene Wimberly, Jim Keller, Jerry Langley and Myra Weatherly.

*Prayer of Remembrance and Blessing

Song of Blessing "In Paradisum" ed. John Rutter
(from Requiem by Gabriel Fauré)

*Translation: May the angels lead you into paradise:
May the Martyrs receive you as you arrive,
And bring you into the holy city of Jerusalem.
May the choir of angels receive you,
And with Lazarus, once a beggar,
May you have eternal rest.*
